ALUMNI NOTES

L. W. Chubb, E. E., '05, of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co., has been appointed manager of the company's New Radio Engineering Department. Mr. Chubb is known to many members of the Institute of Electrical Engineers by his interest in its activities, having served for a number of years on various committees. At present he is a member of the Meetings and Paper Committee, Standards Committee, Electrophysics Committee, and the U. S. Committee of International Electrotechnical Commission. He has been with the Westinghouse company for the past 15 years in both research and practical work.

Mr. L. Yeager, E. E., '14, is located with the Jeffrey Manufacturing Co. office at Pittsburgh.

James A. Moyer, E. E., '08, James P. Calderwood, E. E., '08, and Audrey A. Potter, E. E., '08, have recently published "Elements of Engineering Thermodynamics." This treatise is an extension of a briefer work entitled "Engineering Thermodynamics." (John Wiley & Sons, Inc., Lond., Chapman & Hall, Ltd., 1920—216 pp., illus., tables, folded chart 9x6 in. 2.50.)

John D. East, Arch. E., '18, was married October 7, 1920, to Catherine Spall Rawlings of Brooklyn, N. Y. Address: 1645 Bergen Ave., Jersey City, New Jersey.

A. W. Seebright, E. M., '20, in common with everybody engaged in copper mining, is feeling the effects of the enormous slump in the copper business, but unlike a good many folks Mr. Seebright is not easily troubled, consequently when the Kennecott, Alaska, copper mines closed down he did not waste time grieving but took a job teaching in a high school. The walking from Kennecott to the States was bad.

L. W. Latterner, Arch., '13, is now a member of McLaughlin and Hulsken firm in Lima, Ohio.

Joshua Vogel, Arch, '12, of Baker, Vogel and Evans, Architects, 516 Pacific Block, Seattle, may leave this organization, which has been very successful, to go to China.

M. P. Post, Cr. E., ex-'98, of Post Bros. Tile Co., Commerce, Mo., has written the Ceramic Department announcing his intention of attending the American Ceramic Society, meeting in Columbus during February.

L. L. Markel, C. E., '18, was married to Miss Ruth Radebaugh of Columbus, October 10, 1920. Mr. Markel is located in Nova Scotia with the Dominion Coal Co.

L. L. Luke, C. E., '18, is spending the winter in Florida.

J. M. Gerber, C. E., '19, is with the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. at Cleveland.

E. F. Gallagher, R. B. Sherman and R. B. Smith, all 1920, are with the Ohio Inspection Bureau at Columbus.

R. W. Shoemaker, Charles Jensen, L. E. Vandegrift, J. R. Smart, V. E. Schuler and C. L. Terzopoulos, all '20, are working on the Water Works Extension project for the city of Columbus.

L. J. Lake, C. E., '05, was a passenger on the steamer with Q. A. Campbell, bound for San Domingo. Lake had not been heard from for 15 years. He was one of the engineers employed together with F. F. Friend and Q. A. Campbell to take care of the irrigation for the Barahona Sugar Co. in San Domingo.

M. A. Munn, C. E., '94, is a practicing engineer at Cleveland with offices in the Rockefeller Building. Mr. Munn had long been reported dead by the Alumni Association.

W. W. Taggart, C. E., '08, writes interestingly from Babbitt, Minn., where he is located with the Mesabi Iron Co.
